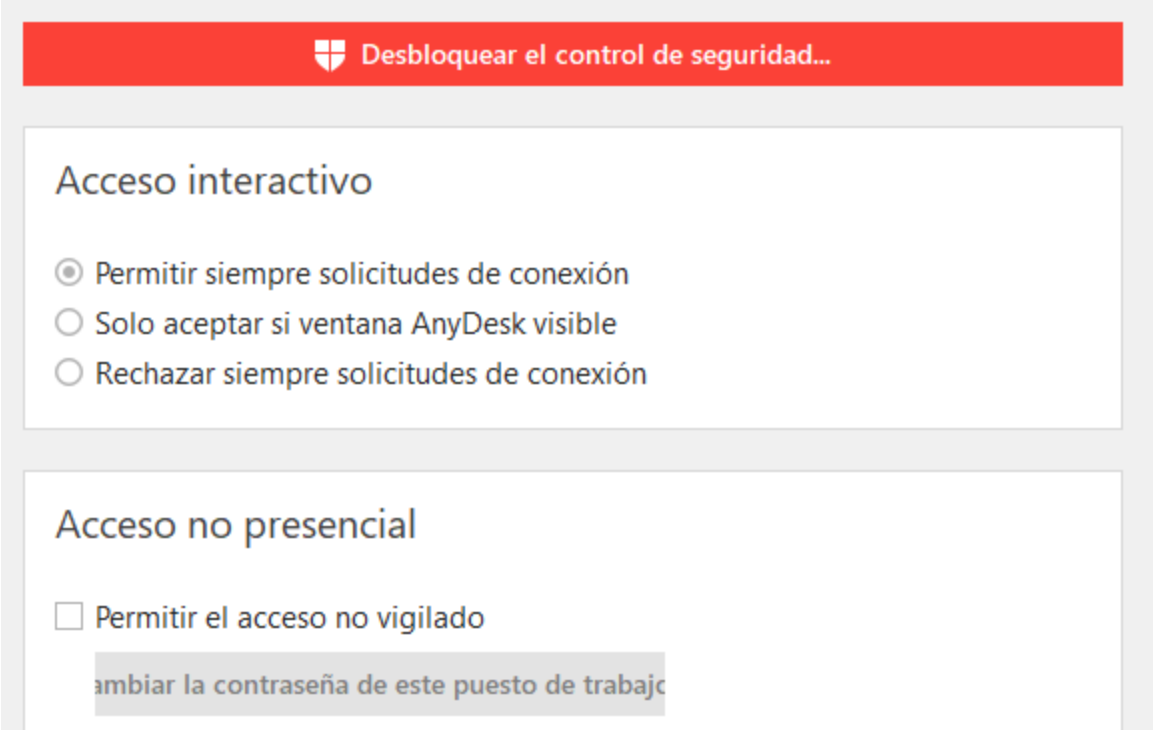
Some Help With

How do I change my workstation password?

In the “Security” section of the configuration you will find the remote access controls.



Start by clicking on “Unlock security check…” and then you can click on the “Change password for this workstation” button.