Some Help With

Understanding Users, Roles, and Groups in AnyDesk: A Complete Guide

“What exactly are users, roles, and groups?

Users are individuals who have an AnyDesk account and utilize the platform. A role refers to a specific set of permissions that a user may hold within my.AnyDesk V2. Meanwhile, a group consists of a list of users. A single group can be assigned multiple roles, and users belonging to this group will share the same assigned roles.“